

With Hardened Hands

Courtesy Multicultural History Society of Ontario

Arrival aboard Olympia, a group of Portuguese from Azores – March 1956.

“When we reached Halifax, inspector Ferreira da Costa shook hands with us and wished us good luck. Afterwards, that’s when we got into trouble – no English, no nothing. The party was over.” – Imigrantes Portugueses 25 anos no Canada